

Ay, ay

I can see myself and you tonight
I feel like a star when I shoot tonight
I wanna be your friend I'll do you right
But everytime I try it's for a night
Pouring up until you want a fight
See me fucking up, can't change your mind
I know I'm insecure but I won't lie
I'll say it to your face, I'll make you mine
We can have a truce, don't need a fight
Making love to you, I'm feeling fine
I lost my phone don't hit my line, if I don't pick up, baby, please, don't cry (baby, please, don't cry)

Baby, please, don't cry (please, don't cry)
Baby, please, don't lie girl (please, don't lie)
Baby, please, don't hide (please, don't hide)
I can see your eyes girl (see your eyes)
I don't waste no time, got the reapers scythe, I'ma find my way now (find my way now)
Girl, shut your eyes, think about your life
Our bed is gray now

Pouring up until you want a fight
See me fucking up, can't change your mind
I know I'm insecure but I won't lie
I'll say it to your face, I'll make you mine
We can have a truce, don't need a fight
Making love to you, I'm feeling fine
I lost my phone don't hit my line, if I don't pick up, baby, please, don't cry (baby, please, don't cry)

Who gonna love me when I'm taking my drugs
I got some problems, I don't think I can stop

I can see myself and you tonight
I feel like a star when I shoot tonight
I wanna be your friend I'll do you right
But everytime I try it's for a night
Pouring up until you want a fight
See me fucking up, can't change your mind
I know I'm insecure but I won't lie
I'll say it to your face, I'll make you mine
We can have a truce, don't need a fight
Making love to you, I'm feeling fine
I lost my phone don't hit my line, if I don't pick up, baby, please, don't cry (baby, please, don't cry)
