Trippin'

suisside

I've been thinking of you
I'm believing it too
Am I doing too much
Am I thinking too much
Girl I don't know

I ain't tripping for you
When I look at the moon
I remember your eyes
I remember your lines
But I'm not to sure

This is the end of the world
End of road
I'ma close my eyes
Pray to the sky
That must it be known
Must be mine
And I'm here with you
But you cannot see

Cause I'm living it too
I can never lie I'm just telling the truth
I be on the side while I'm reading the room
You gon be fine girl do what you do
I ain't tripping for you

Cause I'm living it too
I can never lie I'm just telling the truth
I be on the side while I'm reading the room
You gon be fine girl do what u do
I ain't tripping for you
