Sovran Shrines

Suldusk

Through the fog, shadow skies
Silence in the rise
The cold came, a wild silence
This necropolis

Morning Star, resplendent
The time has come
Candlekeep, all aflame
Rebirth in the flight

All through the night
Vestige of Light
Will remain

Elegy Luminous
Under starry crowns
These tears serve me not
This ellipsis

Star of Lethe come for me
Purify these embers
Candlekeep all aflame
Amphora of the restless

This knowing it came rolling
Before we could ever speak
Unto a silent sky we watch
The bludgeoning of our dreams
All but light will fall
And last unto the end
Resting on our sovran shrines
Hidden evergreen
