

It's All Me

Sum 41

Truth, it's in the past
It's on a dead-end to nowhere
Why can't you see?
You lose, and are failing fast
Think you're fed up with me
Well you ain't seen nothing yet

This time around I won't give in
It's only me and I win

Time won't wait
I push to the limit
I won't waste a minute
I will take
All this confusion
And twisted delusion
No

Pride, it's guaranteed
'Cause I have outstanding vanity
Just lies, it's all you need
'Cause you'd be surprised at what the mass believes now

This time around I won't give in
It's only me and I win

Time won't wait
I push to the limit
I won't waste a minute
I will take
All this confusion
And twisted delusion
No

Distract from truth and tell more lies
You find yourself between the lines
Complete control, no compromise
A victim of your own design

Time won't wait
I push to the limit
I won't waste a minute
I will take
All this confusion
And twisted delusion
