Was happiness a fad?

G

Fis D

Or was it in the lost in found again behind the issues.

A

It might not be so bad,

G

We're all addicted to our tragedy,

D

E

I guess it's what it had to be.

D

With nothing on my back,

G

E

It's still enough to bring me down.

My mind's about to crack,

Cause what I thought could not be found.

Matter of in fact,

It's harder still when you're around.

With nothing on my back,

I can't help but drown.

A G A

D

I might as well belong to both of you.

A G

D

And the mess you always seem to drag me through.

That night forever always haunting me.

But I guess it is what it's supposed to be,

H

E

But spare your thoughts of sympathy.

With nothing on my back,

It's still enough to bring me down.

My mind's about to crack,

Cause what I thought could not be found.

Matter of in fact,

It's harder still when you're around.

With nothing on my back,

I can't help but drown.

With nothing on my back,

It's still enough to bring me down.

My mind's about to crack,

Cause what I thought could not be found.

With nothing on my back,

It's still enough to bring me down.

My mind's about to crack,

Cause what I thought could not be found.

With nothing on my back,

It's still enough to bring me down.

My mind's about to crack,

Cause what I thought could not be found.

With nothing on my back,

It's still enough to bring me down.

My mind's about to crack,

Cause what I thought could not be found.

With nothing on my back,
It's still enough to bring me down.
My mind's about to crack,
Cause what I thought could not be found.
Matter of in fact,
It's harder still when you're around.
With nothing on my back,
I can't help but drown.
