

Back To

Summer Salt

Rain
Is pouring down on me again
Flame
Is burning up inside my head

So I howl your name to the moon and there you stay
So I sing your name to the starry sky

Heaven's just a feeling that seems so far away
I'll remain here in this moment rest my worries to lay
Missing all your seasons and the ways that you've changed
Take me back to all those days forever always

Take me back to the way
Just take me back to the day
Take me back to the way
Just take me back to
Back to

Days
If we have plenty or just a few
Still I run with you
In lilac corners with crescent views
Now I hear your name back at home and there you stay
And I feel you close still I run to you

Heaven's just a feeling that seems so far away
I'll remain here in this moment rest my worries to lay
Missing all your seasons and the ways that you've changed
Take me back to all those days forever always

Take me back to the way
Just take me back to the day
Take me back to the way
Just take me back to
Back to
