

Fire Flower

Summer Salt

5, 4, 3, 2, 1!

Taking off this evening to fight this winter day
Brokenhearted I've been, I'll leave it on the land to stay

I've got an island in my back-
pocket, lookin' for a way to find love anyday
I'll spend the holiday inside these sapphire waves as the sunse
t's sinkin' away

Light the night
Starry-eyed
Waved goodbye
So long, this might be the year
I will fall in love with the one my heart's dreaming of

Shallow glasses breaking, the longing never ends Letting go of ways that we changed, still I pretend

I've got an island in my back-
pocket, lookin' for a way to find love anyday
I'll spend the holiday inside these sapphire waves as the sunse
t's surfen' away

Ba-ba-ya-ohh
Ba-ba-ya-ohh
Ba-ba-ya-ohh

Light the night
Starry-eyed
Waved goodbye
So long, this might be the year
I will fall in love with the one my heart's dreaming of Turn to dark
Fire flower
Don't pass me by I've waited on through years to find the tears falling from eve rything my heart could dream of

Do, do, do...
