

Full Catastrophe

Summer Salt

Step in, you can step right in any time you like Run, ride, you can have your bike when you've known what you like ke
But that don't mean each petal stays green if the sun decides to hide
Well, I won't ask forever, but at least I'll ask tonight

Where the fog was green, the party screamed
For the man who played the carol
When the chorus rang, I fled the rain
And fell into my pride

Where I've been lifting the end of an empty beach
Living my life full catastrophe
Holding a rose to the end of a gun
Trying to do it alone

Step in, you can step right in any time you like Tread light, you can ride your bike where you've known that you like
But that don't mean that heaven stays thinking of anyone beside s
Well, I won't ask forever but at least I'll ask tonight

Where the fog was green, the party screamed
At the man who played the carol
When the chorus rang, I sang the scene
The only way I've known to fight

Where I've been lifting the end of an empty beach
Living my life full catastrophe
Holding a rose to the end of a gun
Trying to do it alone
Where I've been lifting the end of an empty beach
Living my life full catastrophe
Holding a rose to the end of a gun
Trying to do it alone
