

Indigo

Summer Salt

Indigo
Blossom in blue bell
In time
We never noticed them once
'Til we got older
Spent time alone
Crying on your shoulder
Drying eyes
And when at last
I'm ready

Look over yonder
See how they wander
Albatross steep under thunder
I wonder
Am I afraid now that you're gone
Will I believe and live on
Our every moment
I see indigo
Believe me
I'll wait here for you baby
So long
So long
