

Tidal Waves

Summer Salt

And as I fall from this home as a feather
Into your pocket where I'll haunt myself forever
All of the paths that have led here now overgrow
Paper planes hover 'round my window
Oh

What's the day?
Oh, what's the hour?
Sip on dreams I don't recollect now, oh
Not at all, not at all (Not at all)
Tidal waves rip through the breezeway
A year once new now far behind me
Making a few more wishes come true
Why don't you and I unbraid
Take some time today
'Til the memories fade away

And now all of the songs that we've crewed
Slowly stretch themselves out of tune
Exhausted from the brawl, my top spinning to a fall
Looking up words, I misspell them all
Yeah!

Early evening
A well loved pillow
Time to wake up and shake and billow
A wish list from the child I have become (I've become)
Tidal waves-a-roar high above me
Onward the dark glow, colored lightly
By the sight of a dripping sun
Why don't you and I unbraid
Take some time today
'Til the memories fade away