

Broken Promises

Summer Walker

Say what you mean
Do what you say
I don't wanna be sold another piece of your dream

So take it
Save it
Put it back
Fuck it, erase it
I just don't know how I can take it
'Cause my heart is breakin'

I've been mistaken
You not the man I thought you were
And they tried to warn me
Yeah, they tried to warn me

You can't tell me
Nothin' 'bout my man
I would never
Take they words against yours
I'd rather let you
Make your promise

Oh no, oh (You)

You can't tell me (You can't)
Nothin' 'bout my man
Said you would step up
Said you was ready
But I should've listened

The first one was a fuck up
Second one was a no one
Third one was a come up
Fourth one, you said
It'd be different, different, different

And I believed you
You never left me like you did them hoes
On me like you did them
I built you up
And I held you down
I built you up
And I held you, I held you down

You can't tell me
Nothin' 'bout my man
I would never
Take they words against yours
I'd rather let you, yeah
Make your promise

Oh no (You)

You can't tell me (You can't)
Nothin' 'bout my man
Said you would step up

Said you'd put the work in (Ready)
But I should've listened
