

Bullshit

Summer Walker

I'm so used to the bullshit
Steady driving me crazy
I don't mean to come off strong
That's just how I feel lately
So used to the bullshit
Steady driving me crazy
I don't mean to come off strong
That's just how I, that's just how I

Why you look so crazy
It's your fault anyway
How you tell me I love you
And then showed me the opposite
It's crazy cause now I need you
With you gone I'll fade away
As if this was yo plan from
From the very first day

I'm so used to the bullshit
Steady driving me crazy
I don't mean to come off strong
That's just how I feel lately
So used to the bullshit
Steady driving me crazy
I don't mean to come off strong
That's just how I, that's just how I

I really wish you'd hear me from a different side
But there's no telling you nothing because you're always right
Cause I know that I'm right about what I seen last night
And if you seen what I seen then you know why I'm leaving
Won't burn yo clothes or bust the windows out ya car
Cause I ain't fucking up the shit you know I bought
Far from who you got me confused with
And I blocked your number cause you still on that bullshit (bullshit)

I'm so used to the bullshit
Steady driving me crazy
I don't mean to come off strong
That's just how I feel lately
So used to the bullshit
Steady driving me crazy
I don't mean to come off strong
That's just how I, that's just how I
