Circus

Summer Walker

This shit feel like a circus
Running around, chasing you down
I'm hoping that it's worth it
'Cause holding you up
Is breaking me down
If you want it full time

Want that day to day
I got that tiger eye
Jumping through the flame
Make you feel alive
Keep you entertained
Ain't no bullseye

Let's get straight to the truth
You (You)
Want (Want)
Me
More than you should know
I
Want
You
It's out of my control
I (I)
Want (Want)
You
More than you should know
You

Just a fatal attraction
Got my heart doing gymnastics
I never feel this magic
Your sheets want me like magnets
But I thought I was a savage
I try to make them disappear
My feelings come on your planet
Stuck on your loving like rabbits
We're just elephants in a room

On that day to day
I got that tiger eye
Jumping through the flame
Make you feel alive
Keep you entertained
Ain't no bullseye

Let's get straight to the truth
You (You)
Want (Want)
Me
More than you should know
I
Want
You
It's out of my control
I (I)
Want (Want)

You
More than you should know
You
