

Constant Bullshit

Summer Walker

Oh, oh, oh
Hey, hey

Those things you did or didn't recognize
How much they hurt me
I blamed it, (I would apologize)
Without being too difficult
For complaining, for the pain

I was dealing with
For catching you in different lies
But you would deny, cold faced it, yeah

But you find a way to make it back
But as much as I refuse
My heart is still asking do you?

Do you mean it?
When you say my name?
'Cause lately all this, bullshit
And making me feel
What you say

Tell me
Do you mean it?
When you say my name?
'Cause it's always, constant, bullshit
When you don't do what you say

Beside
Apart from you
I would ride for you
I will (I will)
Even them times you ain't do me right
I was right here

Showing you what the word
Being loyal is
But we would always end up fighting
But the truth is I was only trying
To make it right
Even though I might've been wrong
In the way that I
Didn't keep it private
Responding in the best way I knew
And you know that a bitch stayed down
When you been down

Do you mean it?
When you say my name?
'Cause lately all this, bullshit
And making me feel
What you say

Tell me

Do you? Mean it?

When you say my name?
Cause it's always, constant, bullshit
When you don't do what you say

I
Was only tryna live my life
It's only you
Rather let outside

It's true
That fame and fortune
Just to ruin us
Yeah
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Yeah
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Yeah
