

Deep

Summer Walker

Trust me, trust me
I don't like being alone
Thinking bout ringing your line
I wish you would come home
But I'm just tryna balance my space
I'm just tryna protect my space (oh)
I don't really need the pain
But I love to feel the rain
Maybe I could use a break
So we just might have to wait (oh)

Cause we're way too in love, just to fuck and let go
Cause we're way too involved, just to cut and not call

Way too in deep (deep)
Way too in deep
Way too in deep (deep)
Way too in deep (oh)
Wish I could call, wish I could call and go home
(Oh no no no) We can't even let it go
