

I'll Kill You

Summer Walker

If them bitches 'round you better be blood
If it ain't me or your momma shouldn't be showing you no love
Please forgive me, I know that I'm stingy
'Cause baby, I'm gang 'bout you, ain't playing no games 'bout you

I'd go to Hell and jail about you, boy
I'd go to Hell and jail about you, boy
I'd go to Hell and jail about you, boy
I'd go to Hell and jail about you, boy

I've been waiting so long for a love like this
I've been waiting so long for a love like this
I've been waiting so long for a love like this
Waiting so long

That's on my mama, yeah that's on the hood
Don't want no problems, I wish a bitch would Try to come between us, it won't end up good
You know I love you like no one else could

I go to Hell and back for ya
Bend over backwards, acrobats for ya
Yeah, I go up to bat for you
Even when shit looking bad for you

I've been waiting so long for a love like this
It's a feeling so strong, I don't wanna resist
Like you can't do no wrong, got me losing my shit
Gotta loosen my grip

No, fuck that, my baby, you are mine
Greatest of all time
You better tell them hoes fall in line
I do not play about mine
You know this energy so right
Don't put up no fight
You know I never tell no lie
I want you for life

Don't have me looking foolish
Don't have me feeling stupid
Choose your lover
You got me all tied up
Sometimes you just
You get me all fired up

I've been waiting so long for a love like this
I've been waiting so long for a love like this
I've been waiting so long for a love like this
Waiting so long

Your loving can be too much for me, too much
