

Session 33

Summer Walker

Yeah

Oh no, no, no

Oh no, no, no, no

Long as you held it down

'Fore I be a bitch, I still be on your mind

Long as you got your cars and toys to drive

I shoulda known I couldn't get your time

Long as you got your ice and got your drip

Be on them private jets, takin' trips

Come back at six

Wake me and your child

And then won't lay today

Make me wonder who you might've been layin' with

Makes me wonder who you think you playin' with

I'm beside myself to keep playin' this

Record back over and over again

Swear that you changed, but I know this the end

Long as you on the scene

Think you know your girl, it's so funny to me

As long as you didn't got left 'bout one or two times

Got tired of your shit, you almost lost your mind

Long as they call your name

You'll continue to try to play these games

Leave your family in the cold and rain

And I don't think you'll ever change your ways

'Cause a house is not a home when no one's there

So alone, no one's there

Should I move on since no one's here?

Here

You know, what you got is good, that's why

You refuse to let me walk out your life

But you refuse to match up with my vibe

And keep wasting my time, and you keep wasting my time
