

Thrillboy

It ain't too late to me know

It ain't too late to let me know some'

It ain't too late, let me know some'

Too late to let me know some'

Too late to let me know some'

It ain't too late to let me know some'

Too late to let me know some'

Girl, it ain't too late to let me know some'

I told you, "Don't let it die out"

Baby girl, you was my hideout

Had to get away from the drugs 'cause you was my love

You was always right here, I put no one above

You threw me your heart, now I had to catch it like a glove

Bro, sit yo' ass down 'cause all these niggas dubs

Don't go around showin' these niggas love

I'm high as fuck, I feel like I'm above

Sippin' on mud, I'm still movin' like a slug

We going through shit, you don't gotta throw no slugs

You my first bitch so I ain't gon' keep no grudge

You so damn sweet just like some fudge

If we ever break up, could we keep in touch?

It ain't too late to let me know some'

It ain't too late to let me know some'

Too late to let me know some'

Too late to let me know some'

Too late to let me know some'

Too late to let me know some'

Too late to let me know some'
