(Double R, bird business)

(Fucked it up with ashes)

I need another cup, I done fucked it up with ashes
Only want her if she nasty, and I still clutch the plastic
Stay focused, never crashing, catch bro, they do him nasty

Yeah, usually, I don't need no weed, I need my cup
Made me unleash the beast
Fucking with me and my bros? Then you know that it's up
I done ran through hunnid bands, free bands, I don't care if you leav ing
Ain't going for none of that disrespect, I'm with some demons
She say, "Rino, I hate you, you so misleading"
You'll never catch me with no pole, I stay on defense
Get away from the cops, not pulling over, I'm speeding 30mg blue pills getting popped, I can't breathe, man
I know that I treated you wrong
I know that these diamonds can't cover it up, so I'm writing you thes e songs
I know that these niggas, they wanna be us, can hear it all in they s ongs
I know this bitch now, I can feel it all from her dome

What's wrong? Why you sad?
What's wrong? What happened? Why you mad?
I can't erase it, but I can buy you a bag
Whip spacious, legs up, I'm up in the back

I need another cup, I done fucked it up with ashes
Only want her if she nasty, and I still clutch the plastic
Stay focused, never crashing, catch bro, they do him nasty

Catch bro and do him nasty, off drank, I'm high like NASA
Told bro he need his masters, but all he want is a soul
These niggas need a ladder to get where I'm at His bitch bad, but mine's badder, and she got a bag but mine's fatter
But you mines so it don't matter, but you mines so I don't mind
Just don't go and do no foul shit 'cause you wasting our time, and I pour another line
Sip red like stop signs, you act like I'm blind
And I'm losing my mind, everything is fine
And I'm losing my grind, I'm not proud of my high
You can see it in my eyes, there's no disguise
And you wondering why, why I can't put aside my pride
You gotta show me you the prize, you gotta make me realize

Realize, you gotta make me realize
You gotta show me you the prize
You gotta make me realize
You gotta show me you the prize

You wondering why, can't put my pride
