

Downfall

Summrs

I been on my grind lately
Don't know if I got time for you
At least you know that I'm down for you
We done hit a downfall
I ain't saying it's all your fault
What I'm saying is we could've did better
Know you love to blow up this cheddar
How would you like to be in some new leather?
Let's go shopping for the winter
I'm a rich ass nigga, hop in the sprinter
Got to keep it lowkey 'cause feds a get you
Told you "I love you" I was just messing with you
I been having money since I been messing with you
Put in you Chanel, baby, yeah, I'ma get it delivered
Mixing up the percs and the lean, fucking with my liver
If my racks big I ain't got no time to beef with you
Got to watch my back 'cause, baby, I'm a rich nigga
'Cause, baby, I'm a rich nigga
'Cause, baby, I'm a rich nigga

Yeah, 'cause I been on my grind lately
Don't know if I got time for you
At least you know that I'm down for you
We done hit a downfall

Still please know that I'm down for you
For you, for you, for you, ouu
