

For Someone Else

Summrs

Yeah, yeah (She something I never needed)
Yeah, yeah (That shit is so conceited but you're just like me)
Someone else (How could you like someone...)
It feels like you're for someone else (Oh, oh, oh, let someone get between u s, hey)
Someone else
It's feels like you're for someone else (Let someone get between us)
It's feels like you're for someone else (You)

Why you hit me late night in the studio? You know I'm workin' (Oh)
Act right, I might just get you a Birkin
Took X for the first time, I know you were nervous, oh (Oh)
But you ain't got no reason to be
Your cup fllded with Don Julio but my cup is Easter pink
You let me fuck and we just met like last week
The vibes that we share with each other is crazy, yeah (Oh, oh)
And you so fine, I might just get you a bust down (Bust down, yeah)
Hit my line as soon as I touch down (Soon as I touch down)
Let's hit the beach as soon as the sun down
You was here for me whenever I was down
I would never change on you but you know that (Woah)
Stay ten for me and I'll stay ten for you, you know that (Know that, oh)
Used to be broke back in the day, now I can't go back (Go back, oh)

But it feel like you're for someone else (Someone else)
It feel like you're for someone else
It feel like you're for someone else (For someone else)
It feel like you're for someone else (For someone else)
It feel like you're for someone else

It feels like you're for someone else
I was gon' pick you up every little thing off of that shelf
Gucci, the Fendi, the Prada, Celine
Saint Laurent, that's on my crotch, make her cream
Every time she get to talkin' out the side of her mouth, I don't wanna hear it
Every time I get to walkin' all over this bitch, get in their feelings
Suck me up, I get to squeeze in my guts
Treat me like royalty, King Tut
Niggas wear Chrome thinking it's a crutch
But I drip out the cut and I drip out her butt
She say whatever when I finish her now, oh
Do not mistake me calling you "Love" (Do not mistake me calling you "Love")
Just 'cause you feel love, this ain't this real love, ayy
I made improvements, I might tear up, ayy
Way up from where I was, this shit a miracle, oh yeah
I pray for these racks, this damn near spiritual
And when I'm not gettin' to it, this life's unbearable

It feels like you're for someone else (For someone else)
It feels like you're for someone else (For someone else)
It feels like you're for someone else (For someone else)
It feels like you're for someone else (You wrong)
It feels like you're for someone else (You wrong)

But it feel like you're for someone else (Someone else)
It feel like you're for someone else (For someone else)

It feel like you're for someone else (You are)
It feel like you're for someone else (And it ain't me)
It feel like you're for someone else (And it ain't me)

Someone else (And it ain't me)
Someone else
