Feel like I'm high off the drugs from yesterday
I think I bled on the Rafs from yesterday
Cop me a boarding pass and fly to Saint Tropez
Then mislead a bad bitch I met today
It ain't my fault you wasn't on the same shit as me
It feel like the whole God damn world against me

I express myself better when I'm off oxy
I tend to get enticed by designer things
You feel like you know me, I bet, yeah, oh
I know you feel misled, yeah
Blow my money on expensive threads, yeah
Feel like I'm too ahead for you
Anything you heard about me is true
Regardless, I'ma do me and let you be you
Fucked up Chanel twice today
Fucked a bad bitch twice, same day (I met her)
Just know I'm hoping for the better for you
Don't let this Saint Laurent sweater seduce you
Into doing something you don't wanna

Feel like I'm high off the drugs from yesterday
I think I bled on the Rafs from yesterday
Might cop a boarding pass to fly to Saint Tropez
Then misled a bad bitch I met today
It ain't my fault you wasn't on the same shit as me
It feel like the whole God damn world against me
