Summrs

(Slayworld soldier)

Yeah

Truth is, I had more pills than you had shots
Truth is, I wanna fly you out and give you backshots
You wanna be around and jeopardize what I got
Truth is, I had new bitches at my new spot
You say you like it better when I hit it from the back
Tryna save you 'cause I promise you don't wanna get attached
I'm a sex addict so I'm telling you that I'm no good for that You shouldn't keep your feelings loose, girl you too cute for t hat

If I pop out with you one time then I put you on the map
Keep you away from the outside but you call it trap
If any nigga say he fuck you more than me, then I know it's cap Can't look me in my eyes and say that you love you me, then I k now it's cap
Think you got me to yourself, I swear you know how to make me l augh
And I don't really open up to people, rather keep it to myself
I had loved once and I swear to God it was the realest shit I f elt
But I fucked up that moment when I thought I had it to myself
So these days I sit back and I tell myself
That that love shit for the birds, I don't need nobody else
So, girl you better fall back before you hurt yourself

Truth is, I had more pills than you had shots
Truth is, I wanna fly you out and give you backshots
You wanna be around and jeopardize what I got
Truth is, I had new bitches at my new spot
You say you like it better when I hit it from the back
