

Went Mia

Summrs

Thought you went MIA

You know we MIA

Know we MIA

(You never showed up)

See the pain in your eyes, hold on, baby, I know you need love

I just really, really hope bitches don't be my downfall

Pray that you love yourself, pray that you find yourself, oh, oh

Thought you went MIA, then I went MIA

Bitches tryna come get slayed

After we fuck, we lay up, then I pour you up

The coupe only got two doors, baby, she can't come

You look so sexy when you're drunk

Don't fall in love with me, baby, I ain't the one for you

You already damaged me mentally, baby, you see what you do

I went took you shopping at Tiffany, baby, and got us a room

All my bitches stay in Texas, we slide in a Lexus, guess it's my confession

I put rubies in your necklace, I got you so lit 'cause you showed progression

Fucked a couple models, bought a couple bottles, then we got the whole section

I was so fucked up that night, that's why I showed you affection

Ain't wanna come home with me at first but that club got you second-guessing

Been with a lot of hoes, but baby girl, I'm tryna make you my collection

We could take it to the whip or take it to your crib, just give me the directions

Soon as we made eye contact, baby, I knew that we had a connection

See the pain in your eyes, hold on, baby, I know you need love

Tryna be as soon as we linked up

Pray that you love yourself, pray that you find yourself, oh, oh

Don't fall in love with me, baby, I ain't the one for you

You already damaged me mentally, baby, you see what you do

I went took you shopping at Tiffany, baby, and got us a room

Thought you went MIA, then I went MIA

Know you wanna come get slayed

After we fuck, we lay up, then I pour you up

The coupe only got two doors, baby, she can't (Come)

Slayworld soldier
Thought you MIA, now I'm MIA
