

When It Rain 2 / Wrong

Summrs

BenjiCold, why you icy?

You was always on my mind
You was one of a kind
Just wanted to make you mine
Runnin' out of shit to say
So I'ma just sip this drank
Help me get through the pain
I love it when it rains, hey (Slayworld Soldier)

I still wish you the best and you know that's forever
Reminiscin' 'bout the sex we made in the cold weather
Tennis chains 'round my neck, yeah, you was 'posed to have one too
But you couldn't stay down
I knew it wouldn't last
Still can't get over the past
You put this on yourself
You chose a side that wasn't mine
I would never do that to you, but it's too late
Oh, but it's too late
It ain't too late to let me know

You was always on my mind
You was a one of a kind
Just wanted to make you mine
Runnin' out of shit to say
So I'ma just sip this drank
Help me get through the pain
I love it when it rains, hey

BenjiCold, why you icy?

(Woah, go, go, go)
(Oh)

You know I got that bitch on me, yea
In case you try to try somethin' lil' funny
Came a long way from rockin' that Stoney
Model bad bitches wanna feel up on me
You actin' like I said somethin' wrong
Wanna go home? I'll drop you home, oh
I'ma hit up your friend
Slide on her ass in a fuckin' Benz
Codeine wash down all of my sins
I can't find, don't know where to begin
Why you follow me here? Who let you in?
You act like you wanna go through this again
I'ma hit you back, I'm gettin' some Woods
Baby, where you at? I'm not feelin' good
I gotta see you, baby, I'm missin' you, baby
I hate writin' these letters to you
I just spent six-hundred at Neiman's
Baby, you bad as fuck like a demon
You the only one that I want, you the only one that I'm seein'
I knew you was the one when we was in the back of that Beamer, yeah
