Let's go

What do you say?!
We gotta talk about hate
All those stereotypes
Turns us into sound bites
Open up your mind, to a kind
That just might not be your type
We gotta talk about fear
Lurks inside you just beware, where?
Takes you over, and bulldozer
Through your brain not acting sober
Got everybody in a panic
Do not know what to do frank
Anger inside, volcanic, erupt
And you'll corrupt this planet!

Feel that love, feel that love tonight Yes, you've got that courage burning bright! Feel that love, feel that lone tonight Got that courage burning bright!

Ohh oh oh! Oh ohh oh we are not afraid Oh oh oh oh we will never bleed Oh ohhh we are not afraid

So listen up! We gotta talk about love Not just for your boyfriend And not just for your girlfriend we're gonna need a plan Understand the whole planet can be friends We gotta talk about hope Wanna hear your dreams your full scope Make ya feel strong Take a hold, take a stand Break the mold Bring it back from the dead Start anew shed the old Livin a day so manic Livin a cliche so tragic Everything automatic Bad habits, bad habits, bad habits Let me hear you scream

Ohh oh oh! Oh ohh oh we are not afraid Oh oh oh oh we will never bleed Oh ohhh we are not afraid

We believe we are stronger
Than the hate
We can rise above be brave
Educate and elevate as we rage now!
Now we beleive we're stronger
Than the hate
We can rise above be brave
Educate and elevate as we rage go!
Through the rage and the tears we will carry on
They can try but they're

Not gonna stop our song
Center stage and I'm brave as a mile long
Wide awake and I'll change every right from wrong
We believe we're stronger than the hate
We can rise above brave
Educate and elevate as we rage now!
We can rise above brave
Educate and elevate as we rage go!
That's how we rage now!
Be brave now be brave now
Let me hear you scream!

Ohh oh oh! Oh ohh oh we are not afraid Oh oh oh oh oh we will never bleed Oh ohhh we are not afraid Ohh oh oh! Oh ohh oh we are not afraid Oh oh oh oh oh we will never bleed Oh ohhh we are not afraid
