

Sleep Tight

Sumo Cyco

You call me trouble, cause I'm a rebel
You call me fragile, cause I'm hard to handle
You call me tyrant, cause I'm defiant
You call me lawless, to me that's just progress
You call me junior, I'm the future
You say damaged, I'm the suture
You call me wicked, cause I'm persistent
You say goodbye, I say hello
I'm gonna bet that you say slow, when I say GO!

Standing on the backs of those who've fallen
How you feeling now?
You took 'em down
You tricked 'em good, painted their faces like a clown!
Your death machine is on a rampage, destroying towns!
With every cry of bleak despair you
Turn your head and clutch your crown!
You clutch your crown!

Feeding the greed, We're all guilty of it now!
We're guilty! We're guilty! We're guilty of it now!
We're in the habit of climbing not looking down
We're climbing! We're climbing!
We climb not looking down! Not looking down!

Hey! Hey! What's the story?
Guts and glory!
Predatory!
Hey! Hey! They're the good guys
With the neckties, around your eyes!
Sleep tight!

A drowning man will grasp at straws
A willing man drowns for a cause!
The blood will spill as cigars blaze
The great white jaws will be your cage!
Be your cage!

Hey! Hey! What's the story?
Guts and glory!
Predatory!
Hey! Hey! They're the good guys
With the neckties, around your eyes!
Sleep tight!

Feeding the greed, we're all guilty of it now!
We're in the habit of climbing not looking down
We're all addicted to the lies, protection for our stinging eyes
We all learn how to justify the damage done, stay pacified
Cry blasphemy, don't speak my name
Law of the land will place the blame
And you awake in a cold sweat from stabbing wounds with bayonets!

Feeding the greed, We're all guilty of it now!
We're guilty! We're guilty! We're guilty of it now!
We're in the habit of climbing not looking down
We're climbing! We're climbing!

We climb not looking down! Not looking down!
Stab the wounds with bayonets!

Hey! Hey! What's the story?
Guts and glory!
Predatory!
Hey! Hey! They're the good guys
With the neckties, around your eyes!
Sleep tight!

Hey! Hey! What's the story?
Guts and glory!
Predatory!
Hey! Hey! They're the good guys
With the neckties, around your eyes!
Sleep tight!

Hey! Hey! What's the story? Sleep tight!
Hey! Hey! What's the story? Sleep tight!
