

Duller Days

Sundara Karma

Such a silly thing
Stuck in an unhappy situation
Like love will make it right
But at least there would be sexual gratification

Oh no, the feeling goes
A monster is sitting at the end of my bed

I am immersed in Herbert's deepest blue
A necromance as common as the flu
Although I preach, I'm never satisfied
Still I remain and feel those duller days

Pull from underneath
It peeled my skin back to the bone
Serve the prophecy
And damn, it made my feelings overflow

Dripping from head to toe
It's like the dark water got in again

I am immersed in Herbert's deepest blue
A necromance as common as the flu
Although I preach, I'm never satisfied
Still I remain and feel those duller days
I am immersed in Herbert's deepest blue
A necromance as common as the flu
Although I preach, I'm never satisfied
Still I remain and feel those duller days

Spirit was a joke right from the start
It found the cracks, now let it rip me apart
Spirit was a joke right from the start
It found the cracks, now let it rip me apart
Spirit was a joke right from the start
It found the cracks, now let it rip me apart
Spirit was a joke right from the start
It found the cracks, now let it rip me apart

I am immersed in Herbert's deepest blue
A necromance as common as the flu
Although I preach, I'm never satisfied
Still I remain and feel those duller days
I am immersed in Herbert's deepest blue
A necromance as common as the flu
Although I preach, I'm never satisfied
Still I remain and feel those duller days
