

Kiss the red lips all the night
Floating up the way I go
Staying in this crowd of room
I never wanna go home
Chase the honeys through the dark
Find myself in your arms
Looking for the sorts to peak I'm
Sort of prince of the charm

I wanna live another moonlight
In my dreams I can see your face
Is smiling back at me
In my dreams I am every river
Follow course

See the smoke dance through the air
Chance it was the current lights
Everything seems beautiful
Just beyond midnight

I wanna live another moonlight
In my dreams I can see your face
Is smiling back at me
In my dreams I am every river
Follow course
