Waves

Sundara Karma

I follow the Waves to reach the Divine,
Walk through the doors, and tumble into the wild

The gaze at the Sun, The Moon and the stars
Reach for the light and give yourself up to your heart

Throw me down with your sweet force, and take my breath away
Dive into the crushing sound of the last falling WAVE, uuh oh

I feel it around me, soon I'll leave, please don't let me go
I feel it around it, it starts to get louder, louder!

I follow the Waves to reach the Divine,
Rituals begun now,
We're all drifting into the night!

I feel it around me, soon I'll leave, please don't let me go
I feel it around it, it starts to get louder, louder!

Throw me down with your sweet force, and take my breath away
Dive into the crushing sound of the last falling WAVE, uuh oh

Throw me down with your sweet force, and take my breath away
Dive into the crushing sound of the last falling WAVE, uuh oh
