

Shotgun Lady

Sundy Best

My hands don't shake
They never waver
I wake and bake
A soothin' savior

You say see ya later
Mister alligator
I won't be here in the morning
You leveled with devils here's your bronze medal
You can't say I didn't warn ya

Wherever I am
Will be where u are
Take what you can
Cause you'll need those scars

Southern lover
Made like no other
You were the one that I sang for
Shotgun lady
Aims a little shaky
Spent all your time at the beer store
You're sweet fine momma and friend of mine
You're runnin' with folks that take their time
It won't feel good but you'll be fine
But I won't be here in the mornin'

Hardened steel
From fire and brimstone
This is how it feels
To be good and then some

Keep ya struttin' momma
get on up ther holler
You can say "man what are friends for"
Cussin' and fightin'
Don't ya start bitin'
We can still hang at the beer store

Wherever I am
Will be where u are
Take what you can
Cause you'll need those scars

Southern lover
Made like no other
You were the one that I sang for
Shotgun lady
Aims a little shaky
Spent all your time at the beer store
You're sweet fine momma and friend of mine
You're runnin' with folks that take their time
It won't feel good but you'll be just fine
But I won't be here in the mornin'

If I die before I wake
My soul is not for yours to take

The sun may fall
The earth may quake
My hearts the dove and you're the snake

Southern lover
Made like no other
You were the one that I sang for
Shotgun lady
Aims a little shaky
Spent all your time at the beer store
