

Beat The Odds

Sunflower Bean

I can see the lights now
Evil city, yeah, it's misunderstood
We can beat the odds now
Evil people, our intentions are good
Alright, alright, alright

We can turn the lights down
We can turn them where you think we should
I can taste success now
Late night, late night, late nights

Nightfall takes the land
Nightfall takes the land

Nightfall takes the land
Nightfall takes the land

Yeah, I think we fit in now
Do you think they can see through our disguise?
We can beat the odds now
If they just only believe the lies
We tell, we tell, we tell

Underneath the surface
Everyone's more wicked than they should
We can beat the odds now
Beat them for good

Nightfall takes the land
Nightfall takes the land

Nightfall takes the land
Nightfall takes the land
