

I Don't Have Control Sometimes

Sunflower Bean

I said something wrong
No surprises there
People say provocateur
That's the word I'm looking for
I said something rude
It happens all the time
I get myself into trouble when I cross the line

I don't have control sometimes
I don't have control sometimes

Locked out of my house
Get a terrible tattoo
Scroll through my contacts call every number besides you
Meet a stranger at a bar and spill my secrets for all time
Wasted all my money on Tecate and some limes

I don't have control sometimes
I don't have control sometimes
No no no I don't have control sometimes
I don't have control sometimes

On Friday I don't care what's the future brings
On Sunday I stay home and close my blinds
And I don't care what tomorrow thinks
Today I'm totally mine

I don't have control sometimes
I don't have control sometimes
No no no I don't have control sometimes
I don't have control sometimes
