

Nothing Romantic

Sunflower Bean

You'd never guess
I'd be drowning all my sorrows
In the divey hallows of my fantasy

Cause I used to think
My suffering made me immortal
Heartbreak was a portal to my honesty

There's nothing romantic in being alone
I don't wanna be the last lonely soul
Sitting at the bar drinking alone
Waiting for God to take me home
When the Devil said heaven is closed
Waiting for you
But you'll never show
There's nothing romantic in being alone

When I reached the peak
Of isolation mountain
There was only aching
And my misery

I drew your face in the ground
After leaving all your kindness
I was blind and sightless to your belief in me

There's nothing romantic in being alone
I don't wanna be the last lonely soul
Sitting at the bar drinking alone
Waiting for God to take me home
When the Devil said heaven is closed
Waiting for you
But you'll never show
There's nothing romantic in being alone

There's nothing romantic in being alone
I don't wanna be the last lonely soul
Sitting at the bar drinking alone
Waiting for God to take me home
When the Devil said heaven is closed
Waiting for you
But you'll never show
There's nothing romantic in being alone
