

Please Rewind

Sunflower Bean

I feel guilty about the days
That I wake up and look at the clock
Waiting for them to be over, yeah
I remember I asked you
And you said "Yeah, I do that too"
I guess that makes us both
Two lonely, sad saps

It's been exactly a year
I keep thinking I'll see you here
On every street that I pass
Yeah

Please rewind
I say it all the time
I'm sorry I waste your time
I did and will again
Please rewind
I think about you all the time
You're always on my mind
On every street
Every street that I pass
Yeah
Every street that I pass

I feel guilty about the day
That I called up and said, "I'm done"
Said, "I'm not coming over anymore"
Yeah
Maybe I'll never see you again
I'm not the best at keeping friends
'Cause I have a problem letting people in
Yeah

Please rewind
I say it all the time
I'm sorry I waste your time
I did and will again
Please rewind
I think about you all the time
You're always on mind
On every street
Every street that I pass
Yeah

Every street
Every street that I pass
Every street
Every street that I pass
Yeah
Every street
Every street that I pass
