

The Stalker

Sunflower Bean

Dark figure just in my head
Disappeared into the night
Follow me through the sunshine rays
Look awake and dial away

Still don't know what went wrong that night
All you have to do is follow the light
Days are short but the years are long
Listened close but I heard all wrong

Oho, oh, oh, I'm not
Oho, oh, oh, oh no
Oho, oh, oh, I'm not
Oho, oh, oh, oh no

A dark figure flashing was seen
And disappeared before I could scream
Follow me through the sunshine rays
Now I know that time's run out for me

I never wanted to be so short
Now I'm left wanting nothing more
Follow you till the end of time
Until I finally have back what's mine

Oho, oh, oh, [x16]
