Who's running the show
Who's running the show
Who's running the show
Who's running the show

Where would I be
And what would you be
Then zip it up and just follow me
I'm addicted to shining
And glowing
You gon be addicted to my eyes

Imma be zero class
Then you gon be loyal
I'm addicted to the show
You've never done before

Look in the mirror again and again
Don't forget
I'm taking the initiative

All the glance is mine
Till I lose my mind

I'll be shining on you everywhere
Day and night hot cold light

You can't deny
Cuz you're already addicted to me

Who's running the show
Who's running the show
Who's running the show
Who's running the show

Me
