

Amy

Sunny Sweeney

Amy, please let me explain
I'm only half of what's causin' all your pain
I knew he was your man, by the gold ring on his hand Amy, forgive me if you can

Amy, he never meant to be untrue, but he needed love he said he never got from you He found comfort in my arms, touched my body and my heart Sorry for the pain we put you through

If you'd look right at him you might see, he loves you he never wanted me and I'll let him go for good, if you'll just treat him like you should
But if you don't love him
Amy, let him leave

Amy, I can't get him out of my head
'cause I know he's lyin' next to you in bed Do you miss him when he's away,
'cause he's on my mind everyday Amy, I'm just trying to explain

If you'd look right at him you might see,
he loves you he never loved me
and I'll let him go for good, if you'll just love him like you should
But if you don't love him
Amy, let him leave
If you don't love him
Amy, let him leave
