

Someday You'll Call My Name

Sunny Sweeney

Someday you'll call my name
You'll start to go insane
You'll be banging on my door and on my windowpane
Someday you'll call my name

You think that loves a game
You get off on the chase
I knew you wouldn't stay, but you sure fanned the flame
Someday you'll call my name

Think I'll be waiting for you
When your running wild and breaking hearts days are thru
Slipped out of your chains
Someday you'll call my name

I still feel the same
You let me slip away
You missed your chance, and it's a crying shame
Someday you'll call my name

You'll start racking your brain
Wondering what you done wrong
The line outside my doors like a west Texas train
Someday you'll call my name

Think I'll be waiting for you
When your running wild and breaking hearts days are thru
Slipped out of your chains
Someday you'll call my name

I won't be waiting for you
When your running wild and breaking hearts days are thru
Slipped out of your chains
Get in line and call my name
Get in line and call my name
Get in line and call my name
