

Kiss 'N' Run

Sunrise Avenue

Feels like the world has let me down
Feels as if I'm ready to drown
It's 3 am, I lie awake thinking about my great escape

I'm fine with all that I have left
I try to breathe and just forget
I'm flying low because of you
My every thought leads back to you

I'm not made to kiss and run
Say I'm not the only one
Getting over you in a weekend
If on Monday I'll be fine
Why can't I sleep tight tonight
And just walk away and leave her
'Cause I'm not made to kiss and run

I'm pacing all over this place
Tracing the steps we failed to take
I miss you so inside my head
Have to remember to forget

It's just those eyes that kill me now
Intensity still stings my eyes
I wanna keep this hurting too
If it's the last touch I had from you

I'm not made to kiss and run
Say I'm not the only one
Getting over you in a weekend
If on Monday I'll be fine
Why can't I sleep tight tonight
And just walk away and leave her
'Cause I'm not made to kiss and run

I'm fine with all that I have left
I'm trying to live with it every day
I'm not made to Kiss and Run

I'm not made to kiss and run
Say I'm not the only one
Getting over you in a weekend
If on Monday I'll be fine
Why can't I sleep tight tonight
And just walk away and leave her
'Cause I'm not made to kiss and run
