

Eyes Wide Open

Sunset Sons

You know your problem
Before [?]
Girl, you got me on my knees
And anytime I'm hoping
That you could read minds
'Cause I know you read mine

There's a feeling in me
That I'm trying to defeat
It's got me thinking
You know your problem
Is you know you're a problem

Eyes wide open
Got my eyes wide open
You're everything that's beautiful and broken
Got my eyes wide open

So you know your problem
You don't realize
How you're killing all my time
And all my words are token
When all I wanna say
Is you're blowing me away

They're the favorite [?]
[?] to believe
Girl has got me drinking
You know my problem
Is I know you're a problem

Eyes wide open
Got my eyes wide open
You're everything that's beautiful and broken
Got my eyes wide open

'Cause you know you're a problem
Know you're a problem
'Cause you know you're a problem
Know you're a problem

'Cause you know you're a problem
'Cause you know you're a problem
'Cause you know you're a problem
'Cause you know you're a problem
'Cause you know you're a problem
'Cause you know you're a problem

Eyes wide open
Got my eyes wide open
You're everything that's beautiful and broken

Got my eyes wide open
