

Fear

Sunset Sons

We turn, she starts to run
So empty from the giant phone
So lost with where she goes
She goes, yeah goes

To question all the wrongs and the rights
Can lead a girl to fight through the night
To conquer all her fights and her fears
Her fears, her fears

The people who can help you with love
And not just guides and angels above
A person who has truth in her heart
Her heart, heart

Sometimes she helps to heal
Then loses when she needs to [?] fail
The strength to carry on
And on, and on

The only reason to stay
The only reason to go
The only reason to stay

The only reason to stay
The only reason to go
