

Rum & Coca Loca

Sunset Sons

Wake up, we've been here before
You're picking clothes up off the floor
Bare feet dance across the room, whoa
I don't wanna take my eyes off you
But showers hot I've got shit to do
Little bump and it's time to move, whoa

I swear down as I live and breathe
Your hips don't lie when they talk to me
Alone, whoa

I'm feeling rum and coca loca around you
I haven't drank that much
Well that's how it seems but
I'm so rum and coca loca around you
So drunk in love
That we don't need to rise above
The loco things we do
The loco things we do
Got that sunshine on my mind

I never said it was hard to do
But no one can squeeze a lime like you
When you shake you mix my mind in two, whoa

I swear down as I live and breathe
Your hips don't lie when they talk to me
Alone, whoa

I'm feeling rum and coca loca around you
I haven't drank that much
Well that's how it seems but
I'm so rum and coca loca around you
So drunk in love
That we don't need to rise above
The loco things we do

I know I don't bother you
Poke needles in the eyes of shame
You won't hear me complain
The dirty little things we do
There's never anyone to blame
I'm feeling rum and coca loca
Feeling rum and coca loca

I'm feeling rum and coca loca around you
I haven't drank that much
Well that's how it seems but
I'm so rum and coca loca around you
So drunk in love
That we don't need to rise above
The loco things we do
