

Say Hi

Sunset Sons

Is there a good time for me to say
I wanna start playing these games
You've had enough of me calling you crazy
I've had enough of you calling me names
I don't think you realize
The people who are in disguise
I was hurt but I was blind
Now I see right through your lies

I don't think you realize
I'm gonna stay high
I can see you realize
That I'm gonna stay high

You told me secrets to never tell
And then you play me "little mademoiselle"
So I'm thinking of breathing them out
And I can do without having a doubt

I don't think you realize
All we had was pure surprise
Easy come, now dry your eyes
I could've been right by your side

I don't think you realize
I'm gonna stay high
I can see you realize
That I'm gonna stay high
I don't think you realize
I'm gonna stay high
I can see you realize
That I'm gonna stay high

I bet you wish you were my friend now
I bet you wish we never rowed
We fell apart, I can't believe
No bona fides, no enemies
I bet you wish you were my friend now
I bet you wish we never rowed
And now time is flying by
I bet you wish you could just say

I don't think you realize
I'm gonna stay high
I can see you realize
That I'm gonna stay high
I don't think you realize
I'm gonna stay high
I can see you realize
That I'm gonna stay high

I don't think you realize
I'm gonna stay high
I can see you realize
That I'm gonna stay high
I'm gonna stay high

I can see you realize
