

Superman

Sunset Sons

Shame on, shame on you
Shame on, shame on you

You think you're bulletproof
You stand right there and smile
Like nothing's gonna hurt you
That's the difference between you and I
'Cause even when I'm shot through the heart
Even though it started to bleed
Getting up doesn't come easy
That's the difference between you and me

I know she's no, Lois Lane
Did you ever think

Little boy, you ain't a Superman
Little boy, you ain't a stupid man
You better run on a beautiful thing
You better run when the wolves start howling
When the wolves start howling
When the wolves start howling
Little boy, you ain't a Superman
You better run when the wolves start howling

Does it bother you
That I don't need no bionic mind
I don't need no x-ray vision
To see right through your disguise
'Cause all you got is smoke blowing thin
All you got are broken mirrors
You're just a memory fading within us
And you're killing it, killing it

I know she's no, Lois Lane
Did you ever think

Little boy, you ain't a Superman
Little boy, you ain't a stupid man
You better run on a beautiful thing
You better run when the wolves start howling
When the wolves start howling
When the wolves start howling
Little boy, you ain't a Superman
You better run when the wolves start howling

So what's the use in telling lies?
You gotta know your wrong from right
Take a look at me, might find
A bitter man deep inside
Are you sick of stacking up false parts?
Are you sick of beating up girls' hearts?
And if you tear it apart
You gotta realize

Little boy, you ain't a Superman
Little boy, you ain't a stupid man
You better run on a beautiful thing

You better run when the wolves start howling
When the wolves start howling
When the wolves start howling
Little boy, you ain't a Superman
You better run when the wolves start howling

Shame on, shame on you
When the wolves start howling
Shame on, shame on you
When the wolves start howling
Shame on, shame on you
When the wolves start howling
Shame on, shame on you
When the wolves start howling
