

Tonight

Sunset Sons

Yeah, it ain't over tonight
Yeah, it ain't over tonight
Ain't over tonight
Yeah, ain't over
Yeah, ain't over

You've been talking about this shit for way too long
I guess you've been battling, I've seen it take it's toll
We don't acknowledge all the things the way we should
I don't know what's left inside
When I look into your eyes
Call me, call me, I am always on the line
I know you've been here a thousand times before
And I'll stand by you a thousand more

Yeah, it ain't over tonight
We're still brothers for life
Yeah, it ain't over tonight
Yeah, it ain't over
Yeah, it ain't over tonight

I can hear all the scars that you have from what you say
It's just like the puzzle the pieces don't fall into their place
I don't think you realize what you really mean to me
This journey's a place in time
I pray you find your peace of mind

Help me, help me, help me try rewind
Call me, call me, I am always on the line
Don't know oh, don't you realize
I know you've been here a thousand times before
And I'll stand by you a thousand more

Yeah, it ain't over tonight
We're still brothers for life
Yeah, it ain't over tonight
Yeah, it ain't over
Yeah, it ain't over tonight

Yeah, it ain't over tonight
We're still brothers for life
Yeah, it ain't over tonight

Yeah, it ain't over
Yeah, it ain't over tonight
