

Call My Own

Sunshine Anderson

There comes a time in everyone's life
You and that special one by your side
And that's what I'm on but it's just one thing
I'm a little too grown to be playing games

I know there is a love out there
Somewhere, somewhere for me
One that I don't have to share
Tender love and care is what I need

My own, my own, my own
I just want a love that I can call
My own, my own and my own
For wanting a love that I can call my own

I need my space and I'll surely give him his
But I don't wanna be home late night
Wondering where he is and who he's doing
I'm tired of losing sleep over things I can't control
When I'm giving my heart and soul

I know there is a love out there
Somewhere, somewhere for me
One that I don't have to share
Tender love and care, it's what I need

My own, my own, my own
I just want a love that I can call
My own, my own and my own
For wanting a love that I can call my own

I gotta get it right this time, I've waited so long
I really need someone who's mine, oh, mine
Is that so wrong?

My own, my own, my own
I just want a love that I can call
My own, my own and my own
For wanting a love that I can call my own
My own, my own

I just want a love that I can call
My own, my own and my own
For wanting a love that I can call my own

My own
