

Never's Always Never

Sunshine

i have been wasting my time i left that behind now we have to decide little weird day did you never ever go outside just tell me baby what's desire i would believe that we can fuck the heaven there is nothing inside welcome home circumstances getting better it's just a matter of time do you believe that 'never' is always 'never' we're running for time in the middle of day press your lips to eyes of your mother we're running for time and nothing what we know or say you better leave me to bleed terrific 'get up' i've been simply insane nothing else anymore movie never will be over you got the side she is scared and falls in love how can we die when the queen is still scarlet a very little blowing away someone said disease is the modern but we decided each day a brand new vein do you believe :... she said two steps back what's the matter come together no escape i am twisted forever what did you say it's gonna be alright no way you know that more than ever this is not an ecstasy to commit suicide close your eyes how can we die when the queen is still scarlet what did you say it's gonna be alright no way you know that more than ever this is not an ecstasy to commit suicide you waste my time
