Sunshine

she's mute her eyes screamed 'can you feel me now' i want you here stop searching for brand new style you've got your fancy life moving pictures on the wall guess who brings the shadows into the light oh yeah hey i know your name you're leaving tags on the mirror red lipstick golden chains revelation softly killed the glitters i was thinkin' out loud i can never change my strides dedicate the fear to you deal done with handsome porno devil feels like i cut it again and again and you said don't let me stop

let's play bottom and top

victim is another name for lover i'm just a little bored no mercy living day by day
oh yeah we need some more i'm bad news let it fade away she swallowed my tongue i found she's horny we never played so low even talk was cheap i wanna tell you there's no point to find paradise i'm gonna tell you that we used to be alright oh yeah a little insecure absinthe on fire metal spoon all the distances from coma to death now i wanna give to someone feels like i cut it again and again

i'm just a little bored

hey baby listen up just give me space to fit in between to be nasty sweetness i can swallow medicine can be your enemy and make you cry or believe in surreal world i created with the pieces you gave me you said don't let me stop i said no control
