

Attention

Sunsleep

All this time we're spending out here lonely
Feeling like a ghost of what you were
What we had going on here was so holy
So pray to God this couldn't get much worse
Oh, no

Oh, no
I think we're out of time
Counting down the moon until
We're burning up and all has gone to hell
Oh, no
Falling under her spell
Now everyone is famous here
As long as you give us your attention

Living like you used to be my darling
(No it isn't, no it isn't, no, no, no)
Trading all her worth into a screen
(Trading all her worth into a screen)
Our time is worth a hell lot more than diamonds
(Time is worth a hell lot more than diamonds)
Tell me are you really so happy?
Oh, no

Oh, no
I think we're out of time
Counting down the moon until
We're burning up and all has gone to hell
Oh, no
Falling under her spell
Now everyone is famous here
As long as you give us your attention

Oh, no
I think we're running out of time
Baby, we've got to draw the line
Before it's too late, late, yeah
Oh no spreading hate ain't doing shit
Pointing blame enough of it we've got to move on

Oh, no
I think we're out of time
Counting down the moon until
We're burning up and all has gone to hell
Oh, no
Falling under her spell
Now everyone is famous here
As long as you give us your attention
Oh, no
I think we're out of time
Counting down the moon until
We're burning up and all has gone to hell
Oh, no
Falling under her spell
Now everyone is famous here
As long as you give us your attention
